YE TOWNE GOSSIP

By K. C. B.

ON A corner,
NEAR A school,
WHERE I drive around,
WHEN I put my car
FROM THE rear-by garage,
IN A large policeman,
WITH A very nice face,
AND THOUGH I'm careful,
WHEN SCHOOL'S letting out,
OR JUST going in,
THIS GREAT big cop,
KEEPS WATCHING me,
AS THOUGH he thought,
MY AIN in life,
WAS TO run down kids,
AND ANWAY,
JUST YESTERDAY,
I WAS walking past,
AND A swarm of kids,
WAS FLOCKING by,
AND ONE little girl,
HAD A dirty little doll,
AND SHE caught her toe
ON A street car rail,
AND FELL right down.

AND BROKE her doll,
AND THEN got up,
AND STARTED to cry,
AND KEPT on crying,
AND STANDING there,
WHILE THE other kids,
WENT ON their ways,
AND THE big policeman,
TOOK HOLD of her,
AND SPOKE to her,
AND KEPT her there,
TILL ALL of the kids,
HAD LEFT the school,
AND THEN he told her,
SHE WAS under arrest,
FOR CRYING out loud,
ON A public street,
AND PICKED her up,
AND TOOK her a block,
TO A little toy store,
AND MADE the keeper,
CUT THE price in two,
ON A new little doll,
AND CARRIED her out,
AND SENT her home,
AND AN hour later,
HE BAWLED me out,
ABOUT MY lights,
AND THE great big fish,
IT WASN'T dark yet,
I THANK you.

KAYSER TELLS CARRIERS
ELEMENTS OF BUSINESS LIFE
The Herald's Happy Hour's hall on Mills street was opened Wednesday night at a meeting attended by 15 persons. The hall is to serve as a place where newsmen and carriers may gather during their leisure hours and where they may hold meetings.

Edgar Kayser, vice president of the First National bank, spoke to the boys on the importance of establishing early in life the good habits which will enable them to make a success in later years. He impressed upon them the importance of being courteous and prompt. The training received as a Herald carrier, to which Mr. Kayser partly attributed his success, was different from that obtained from other lines of work, he said, as it taught, above all else, how to deal with the public. He offered a prize of $10 for the boy who first finished his complete collection for three months, and $5 for the second to be finished.

J. C. Wilmarth and H. H. Frie also spoke. Presents of candy and bill fold were presented to each carrier.

SEGRO'S BOND IS SET.
Buddy (Scrap Iron) Rowland, a negro, was arraigned before United States Commissioner A. J. W. Schmidt, Wednesday on a charge of violating the narcotic law. Bond was fixed at $1,000.

Mary is the most popular name among actresses. Next in number are contractions of Eleanor.
